

« Feels Like Summer », Ilan Eshkeri, Nick Hodgson & Tim Wheeler

Time of our lives, wonder of surprise, the open blue skies, reflecting in our eyes in a photograph, captured as we laugh, like we always do.

Clear country air, ever-free from care true friendship that we share, joy beyond compare, in a perfect place, see the sunny days,
comin' into view

Cause everyday feels like summer with you, everything feels like starting anew everyday feels like summer with you Aah (aah, aah) !

Once you were here, my worries disappeared, it all became clear, nothing left to fear,
you have got my back, keepin' me on track, like you always do

Time of our lives, such a sweet surprise, together mystified, ever starry-eyed beyond any price, pure as paradise,
comin' into view

Cause everyday feels like summer with you, everythin' feels like startin' a new,
everyday feels like summer with you,
Aah (aah, aah) !

If we get lost on a grey cloudy day, (we get lost on a grey cloudy day) lets stick together we'll always find our way (always find our way)

Cause everyday feels like summer with you
(everyday feels like summer)

Everythin' feels like startin' a new (everythin feels like startin' a new)
everyday feels like summer with you (everyday feels like summer)

Aahh (aah, aah) !

Cause everyday feels like summer with you
(everyday feels like summer)

Everythin' feels like starting anew
(everythin feels like starting anew)
everyday feels like summer with you
(everyday feels like summer)

Aahh (aah, aah) !
